Dear Community Supporter,

ESTHER is an interfaith, nonprofit organization that works to address issues of poverty and oppression affecting the lives of families and individuals in the greater Fox Valley. We involve people of faith, individuals facing the issues we are working to change, and supportive community partners to act on core values and build a better community for all.

We are asking you please to consider supporting our work by placing an ad in our 2019-20 program book! The program book for our 16th Annual Banquet on November 3 will showcase the valued community partners who share our vision for a more equitable community.

This year’s banquet, on November 3, will feature Winona LaDuke as keynote speaker. LaDuke is a rural development economist working on issues of economic, food, and energy sovereignty. She lives and works on the White Earth reservation in northern Minnesota, and leads several organizations including Honor the Earth, Anishinaabe Agriculture Institute, Akiing, and Winona’s Hemp. These organizations develop and model cultural-based sustainable development strategies utilizing renewable energy and sustainable food systems. She is an international thought leader in the areas of climate justice, renewable energy, and environmental justice, and also works to protect indigenous plants and heritage foods from patenting and genetic engineering. She has authored six books, including Recovering the Sacred, All our Relations, Last Standing Woman, and her newest work, The Winona LaDuke Chronicles.

The ESTHER annual program book is distributed to all who attend the banquet and provided to all ESTHER member congregations. ESTHER also distributes these books to community and business leaders throughout the year. Your sponsorship is both an investment in the work of ESTHER and an opportunity to feature your business in the community.

We are asking for your continued support of ESTHER’s work and vision of people joining together to lift up the common good. By advertising your business with ESTHER, you are joining other voices and efforts to build a just and equitable community in the greater Fox Cities.

The advertisement order form with price list is attached. An ESTHER representative will follow up with you shortly. We look forward to your support.

Sincerely,

Joseph Mattern
